

I appreciate Ur concern but Univ of Illinois, UIS is my first choice.

Question 21: U got 4 admits out of 5, u applied, how?

I picked up the schools which suit my profile.

Question 22: How did you come to know about these schools?

Few of my seniors, my frenz have guided me and net.

Question 23: Have u contacted any professor?

No. If yes u can show email proofs.

Question 24: Why?

I thought their time is too precious and it is too premature to disturb them. I will take the benefit of their skills when I land there.

Question 25: Is it worth spending this much of money on ur Master's?

Looking on Future aspects and Income levels, it's definitely worth.

My parents do appreciate the importance of Quality education.

F1 Visa Questions - Part 3: Financial Strength/Funding for Education

Question 26: Tell me about ur parents?

Tell about ur parents here about their professions.

Question 27: How they are going to fund you?

I have liquid cash sources of XX lakhs of which X lakhs are FD's and X lakhs are NSC.

Basically I am from a rich family, money is never a constraint.

Question 28: How did ur parents accumulate this much money?

We have been into business from 45 years.

Our income levels are always greater than the expenses.

Question 29: Do u have any Brothers or Sisters?

Just give him the details if any.

Question 30: If u have a bro\sis, what about their Finance?

In two years from now, I will return back and guide him\her appropriately.

F1 Visa Questions - Part 4: Plans to return to Home Country

Question 31: What is the guarantee that u will return back?

The sole aim for me is to go to US, do my MS there, but not to work there.

Moreover I have many obligations towards my family and I must return as I need to take care of them.

As I have enough property, there is no need for me to work in US.

There is untapped market potential in INDIA.

Question 32: Where can I expect u in five years from now, Ur future plans?

Working for a multinational company like Satyam, Cognizant technologies, Polaris, Iflex, Visual Soft, InfoTech Enterprises.

As per NASCOM (National Association of Software services COMPANIES), the future demand for IT Professionals is estimated 33 lakhs by 2015 and now it is 4 lakhs.