About the Candidate

Self Description: Hello - this is Arwa! I feel like it's difficult to describe myself because the superficial things...like my favorite color and type of ice cream change constantly! But what remains the same regardless of the season is that I am someone who practices optimism and gratitude. I also care deeply about the people around me and try my best to be a supportive person. Apart from that, I am also someone who appreciates a challenge and learning new things. While I like reading (and talking) about politics, I am also passionate about being an engaged citizen and contributing to my local community. This past year, that interest unexpectedly turned into my career while working for Senator Bernie Sanders. When I'm not working, I enjoy spending time with family and friends - typically, my friends and I end up in one of our kitchens drinking chai and laughing at the most ridiculous things.

Interests: Community Work, Cooking, Travelling

Spouse Preference: In a partner, I am looking for someone who is respectful and caring with a sense of humor. I'm also a considerably driven person and appreciate when others have a sense of ambition/purpose in their chosen field. Lastly (but very importantly), deen is a large part of my life and impacts many personal and professional decisions I take. I hope to find a partner who also cares about strengthening their imaan and is keen on going to moulana ni hazrat when possible.

Parent's views on my marriage: They agree with her choice.

Counselor's Remarks: She is sweet and calm by nature. Very silent and family oriented.
