

F1 Visa Interview Questions - Part 1: Interest in US Education

Question 1: Why US? <<- very Important F1 Visa Interview Question.

To pursue Masters in Computer Science.

Question 2: Why only US?

It is the center of excellence in the field of computer science. That's why it's most sought after International learning center. The US Universities have gr8 facilities for research. Moreover, an MS degree from a Univ in US has high recognition back here in INDIA, and would help me to establish myself in a good position after my MS.

Quality. Choice. Value. Flexibility

The United States has thousands of accredited colleges and universities renowned for quality, numerous programs of study, and flexibility to change fields of study and schools. The wide range of tuition and living costs makes the United States affordable for hundreds of thousands of international students each year. Whichever region you choose, you're sure to find the right campus for you. Your journey to study in the United States begins today.

Question 3 : How can u say it is the center of excellence?

The Global Giants are from US, to name a few.

In the field of Hardware ? IBM, INTEL, DELL, HP. In the field of Software ? MICROSOFT, ORACLE, SUN-MICROSYSTEMS, LINUX. In the field of network ? CISCO. In the field of OFC (Optical Fiber Cable) ? AT&T AMERICAN TELEPHONES & TELEGRAPH, BELL-LABS. In the field of Application Software ? MOTOROLA, GE.

Question 4: How can u say it is most sought after International learning center?

Some of the best students and faculty from across the globe converge to US for their enrichment. For example in my school the numbers of International students are from more than 35 countries.

Then?

US universities are Primarily Research Centers. Every professor has an identified field of Research.

Question 5: How can u say US universities are Primarily Research Centers?

As the curriculum is more practical in application oriented. I wish to be the best and be the best.

Question 6: Why MS? <<- very Important F1 Visa Interview Question

Firstly for in-depth knowledge, Secondly as a mark of Academic Excellence, Finally for a long term career prospects.

Question 7: Why not in INDIA?

I have an option to go for the best.

Question 8: Who said that US is the best?

As per U.S.E.F.I. United States Education Foundation in India, US Education is 6 years ahead of the rest of the world.

Question 9: I am from US, u can see me only, but I don't find sth like that in US?

public university