Online Course Statement of Accomplishment

IBRAHIM RUPAWALA

HAS SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED A FREE ONLINE OFFERING OF TECHNOLOGY ENTREPRENEURSHIP PART 1 PROVIDED BY STANFORD UNIVERSITY THROUGH VENTURE LAB.

Technology Entrepreneurship Part 1

This course introduces the fundamentals of technology entrepreneurship, pioneered in Silicon Valley and now spreading across the world. You will learn the process technology entrepreneurs use to start companies. It involves taking a technology idea and finding a high-potential commercial opportunity, gathering resources such as talent and capital, figuring out how to sell and market the idea, and managing rapid growth.
